NEW LAND OPENED UP FOR HOME SEEKERS

Powell, Wyo., April 20.—A new land of promise for the land-hungry and the homeseekers is to be opened Monday, when the government will offer to settlers the lands embraced in the fourth unit of the Shoshone irrigation project, lying to the north and west of this town. The farms are mostly eighty acres each and contain some of the finest land on the Shoshone project, which eventually will reclaim 150,000 acres east of the Yellowstone National Park in northern Wyoming.

Three years ago this spring the first unit of the Shoshone irrigation project, consisting of 15,000 acres, was opened. This was followed at intervals of a year by the opening of the second and third units. Settlers have poured into the valley from all sections of the country. About five hundred families are now established on the first three units and have built roads, schools and churches. The project has railroad facilities, rural delivery, telephones, and there are thriving towns at short intervals. The towns of Garland and Ralston have grown rapidly and Cody is assuming metropolitan airs. Three years ago the government established the town of Powell in the center of the irrigable area. The town is the headquarters of the United States Reclamation Service on the Shoshone project and, though only three years old, it boasts of good schools, churches, hotels and stores.

NORMAL DEFEATS SHAWNEE AGAIN

DEFEATS BAPTISTS BY SCORE OF
14 TO 4—FOURTH SUCCESSIVE
VICTORY OVER SHAWNEE.

And E. C. S. N. has won again by a larger score than ever. The Baptists were immersed so deeply that they still were struggling in the waves when they left the grounds. In fact, the Normal boys had everything their way from the second inning. The visitors hit well during the first part of the game, but Bruce Ligon, the young spit-ball twirler, soon got down to work and took the opposing batters in the order of one and two and three—out. In fact Bruce showed up well, though hardly as well as he did away from home.

Errors were made freely on both sides. This and the heavy hitting of both teams account for the large score. McMillan and Houpt were the home boys who seemed to be unable to make their hands stick to the horse hide. They were by no means in their usual form. Roddie, McCain, Tolbert, and McKinney were the stars of the field. Although McKinney made a bad error in left field, he made up for this by his great base running. Roddie and McCain also ran bases so fast that the Baptist boys failed to see them in two cases. Roddie even stole home once and made it by a good margin. Pat Jones, who hit so hard the day before, was unable to bring his bat into contact with the ball yesterday.

This makes the seventh game for the Normalites, and they have won six. Really this is no bad record considering the late beginning they had. The next game will likely be played here next week with Sacred Heart. The home boys beat these Catholics at Konawa last week in a 2 to 1 game. They expect to take a similar victory down here.

MORE DETAILS OF TITANTIC WRECK

TITANTIC GOING AT HIGH SPEED
WHEN COLLISION CAME.

New York, April 19.—The living cared for, the dead beyond recall, survivors of the Titanic disaster were able for the first time today to see in calmer retrospect Monday's tragedy of the North Atlantic, and from their more normal utterances there is slowly unfolding the full story of how the great White Star liner, her band playing to the last, sank off the Grand Banks with more than 1,500 souls aboard.

From the Countess of Fethes, now quartered luxuriously in a New York hotel, to the six Chinese coolies who escaped by hiding under the lifeboat seats, all of the 750 have been provided with food and clothing, and some, immigrant and millionaire, are on their way home to England, the continent or distant parts of the United States. Many, however, and of these the hospitals shelter scores, still remain in New York, where the Cunard liner Carpathia brought them last night.

Even after all that has been told of the disaster, the death list remains indefinite. Last night's total estimate was 1,595; today the White Star Line issued a statement placing the total at 1,635. Exactly how many died will never be known. It has been established officially, however, that the Titanic was traveling twenty-one knots an hour when she struck the iceberg. Notwithstanding this, however, none of the survivors, from steerage to saloon, has as yet condemned Captain Smith, who went down with his ship. The Titanic's rate of speed, which was approximately twenty-six and one-half land miles, was brought out today from the lips of J. Bruce Ismay, president of the International Mercantile Marine and managing director of the White Star Line, who appeared as a witness before the United States Senate committee which is investigating the disaster. Nervous but not in tears, as Captain Rostron of the Carpathia, who followed him on the stand, Mr. Ismay told in whispers of his escape from the sinking liner from the time he pushed away in a boat with the women until he found himself, clad in his pajamas, aboard the Carpathia.

He was not sure in just what boat he left the Titanic, nor was he sure how long he remained on the liner after she struck. He added, however, that before he entered a lifeboat he had been told there were no more women on the deck and he denied there had been any censoring of messages from the Carpathia. Other witnesses, including Captain Rostron, bore him out in this, with the explanation that the lone wireless operator on the rescue ship, swamped with personal messages, was unable to send matter for the press.

Interest second only to that in the tales of the survivors centered upon Mr. Ismay's recital. In Washington Senator Rayner of Maryland bitterly arraigned him before the senate and expressed the hope that this country might rely upon British justice "to bring to bay the guilty directorate of the company."

From Washington also came the opinion of expert naval hydrographers that no blame should attach to Captain Smith, because, as they contended, analysis of ocean charts had shown that the skipper, warned of the presence of icebergs, had steered the Titanic fully sixty miles southward from the regular course.

In spite of this caution the mass of ice was struck, and as a preventive of similar disasters the Hydrographic Office issued tonight an order shifting the lanes of trans-Atlantic lines 180 miles southward from the path which the Titanic followed.

LAWTON MAN FAVORS COMMISSION GOVERNMENT

Lawton, Ok., April 17, 1912.
Mr. W. W. Sledge, Ada, Okla.

Dear Friend:—Yours of recent date to hand in which you asked for my views of Commission form of government.

I wish to advise you that I was a member of the council here at the time the commission form of government agitation was so high, and at the time the commissioners took their offices, and that I was for commission government all the time.

Commission form of government has been effect here since November 6th, 1911, and the majority of the taxpayers are well pleased, of course we have not had that form of government long enough to give it a thorough test, but I am satisfied it will stand the test.

The pay roll has been reduced and the commissioners are here all the time looking after the interest of the city, and they are ready to go in session at any time there is any business that calls them together.

The majority of the taxpayers of this city were for commission form of government, but of course some of the old administration and their friends were opposed to a change. We anticipate quite a reduction in the levy for this coming year.

Hoping this information will be satisfactory to you, I am, your friend,
C. M. COUCH.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage, a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of 75, while our mothers have white hair before 50. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Use it and see for yourself how quickly dandruff goes and gray hairs vanish.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle. Special Agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

FRENZIED POLITICS CENTER OF STAGE

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT
SAYS PRESIDENTIAL FIGHT HAS CENTER OF STAGE.

Washington, April 20.—Frenzied politics here has made congress take a back seat. Instead of people watching what is happening up on Capitol Hill, as is usually the case when Congress is in session, everybody in Washington now watches the headquarters of the presidential candidates.

There is a saturnalia day and night, of claims, counter claims, contradictions, statements, counter statements, accusations, acclamation, refutations, challenges, statements putting each other in the Ananias club, campaign managers hurling defiance, vociferation and a general merry hullabaloo.

The contest is a sort of political catch-as-catch-can scramble. On one day Joe Dixon, managing the Colonel's campaign, will issue a blistering broadside charging Bill McKinley who runs the Taft outfit, with intimidating postmasters who support Taft. Bill will come right back, boldly hurl the accusation in Joe's teeth, and answer something that the Colonel did or is going to do, or might do. When the news clicks in over the telegraph that the Colonel has won a precinct or something like that the statements issued from Joe's bureau resemble every second sheets on a news ticker. Bill's busy little press agents are just as active and the statements fly out of the Taft headquarters at the Raleigh hotel like messenger boys with life-and-death telegrams. The real hot scrap is between the Taft and Roosevelt crowds. Perhaps there is something of personal feeling in the row. It is war to the knife stuck in up to the hilt.

Managers for the democratic aspirants are not so bitter. They content themselves with daily statements, sometimes several a day, when their candidate wins in some primary. So far they have refrained from attacking each other like the republicans but there are plenty of sly digs in the back being handed around when the opportunity offers, or ready to be handed around.

Washington is now the Mecca of the campaign manager and the assistant campaign manager. The press agent is in his glory, glorying at so much per glory and per diem. The correspondents are bothered with floods of "literature" that swamp their offices, most of which is flung on the floors. The old bums who hang around the political headquarters for free cigars, and the has-been politicians who know exactly how to run the campaign and believe the managers are making colossal blunders every time they do anything are much in evidence. People who believe the nation is going to the demimition bowdows are cluttering up the headquarters from 8 a. m. until long after midnight, loaded to the guards with advice.

It would not be surprising that before the convention some of the campaign managers or the multitude of assistants, have to retire to the peaceful quiet of a sanitarium, or a padded cell in belam.

Because nobody is paying any attention to congress perhaps that is one of the reasons the members are beginning to figure on winding up the session before June, or at any rate before the national conventions. If the leaders carry out plans they are now mulling over congress will quit inside of two months. There is another reason, besides being out of the time light, that makes both republicans and democrats want to quit early and go home. The democrats know they cannot get any tariff legislation past the senate at this session, and having passed enough bills in the democratic house to make a show before the voters in the November elections they are willing to let it go at that. On the other hand the republicans don't want any tariff reductions, and the republican senate is going to see to that. Why, then, argue the leaders of both parties should we continue to wrangle here and accomplish nothing. Besides it will be hot in Washington pretty soon, and members who went through the summer in the special session, especially some of the decrepit old senators, don't want a repetition of that dose of swelter. Probabilities, therefore, are that congress, about the last of May, will get ready to lay aside its legislative togs, and hie itself, individually, to home and summer resorts.

The senate already has a tired feeling. Most of the upper house men feel that with the presidential campaign on congress ought to end as quickly as possible. Members of the lower house, knowing the futility of trying to jam through any tariff reform

ANOTHER VERSION OF COL. ASTOR'S TRAGIC DEATH

New York, April 19.—Miss Margaret Hays of this city, a survivor of the Titanic, gave still another version of the manner in which Col. Astor met his death.

"Col. Astor, with his wife, came out on deck as I was being assisted into a lifeboat," said Miss Hays, "and both got into another boat. Col. Astor had his arms about his wife and assisted her into the boat. At the time there were no women waiting to get into the boats and the ship's officer at that point invited Col. Astor to get the boat with his wife. The Colonel, after looking around and seeing no women, got into the boat and his wife threw her arms about him.

"The boat in which Col. Astor and his wife were sitting was about to be lowered when a woman came running out of the companionway. Raising his hand, Col. Astor stopped the preparations to lower his boat and stepping out assisted the woman in to the seat he had occupied. Mrs. Astor cried out and wanted to get out of the boat with her husband, but the Colonel patted her on the back and said something in a low tone. As the boat was being lowered I heard him say, 'The ladies will have to go first.'

Another impressive act of heroism by Col. Astor was told today by Geo.

A. Harder a Brooklyn man, who survived the Titanic disaster.

"When Col. Astor had assisted his tearful young wife and her maid into a lifeboat he tried to put in a young boy, but the sailors refused to let him, saying that the room was only for the children.

"Col. Astor then picked up a woman's hat from the deck and placed it on the boy's head and brought him back to the boat. He said 'Here, little girl, climb in,' and the officer of the ship let the boy through. As the boat lowered away Col. Astor stood on the deck waving good-bye."

LUBIN'S LAUGHING HIT:

THE LADY POLICE

This is a farce, pure and simple, but even at that, it might be possible. The suffragettes elect a woman mayor and she appoints lady police. They fit up the jail in fine style, and with turkish baths. When the men hear of this they all try to get "pinched," but the lady cops only arrest the young men and the best looking married ones. When the old maids and the wives hear of it, they get jealous and make a raid on the jail—and then what happened to the lady police was a plenty. Girls see this; boys don't miss it.

The most laughable comedy seen in a long time will be shown at the Majestic this evening. It shows what happens in a city which has been captured by the suffragettes, who fit up the jail in such elegant style that every man in town tries to get sent up. The lady police are particular to arrest only the best looking, however and when the old maids hear about it the trouble comes in great gobs. The other picture was made in Ireland and is a thrilling story of an Irish patriot and his lover.

To Dedicate New Campanile.

Venice, April 20.—For the first time in a decade the ears of the Venetians will be gladdened during the coming week by the sound of the famous bells of the Campanile of St. Mark's. Ever since the old Campanile fell in ruins in 1902 the work of rebuilding has been carried on. Today the beautiful tower stands just as before. Every feature has been faithfully reproduced, from the wonderful bronze statues to the famous chimera, for the sound of which Pope Pius X. has often expressed a yearning since he quit Venice for the Vatican. The formal dedication of the new Campanile is set for next Thursday. The municipality has issued an invitation to Italy and the world to attend the ceremonies, which will be conducted on an elaborate scale.

S.S.S. NATURE'S PERFECT TONIC

Something more than an ordinary tonic is required to restore health to a weakened, run-down system; the medicine must possess blood-purifying properties as well, because the weakness and impurity of the circulation is responsible for the poor physical condition. The blood does not contain the necessary quantity of rich, red corpuscles, and is therefore a weak, watery stream which cannot afford sufficient nourishment to sustain the system in ordinary health. A poorly nourished body cannot resist disease, and this explains why so many persons are attacked by a spell of sickness when the use of a good tonic would have prevented the trouble. In S. S. S. will be found both blood-cleansing and tonic qualities combined. It builds up weak constitutions by removing all impurities and germs from the blood, thus supplying a certain means for restoring strength and invigorating the system. The healthful, vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed make it splendidly fitted to the needs of those systems which are delicate from any cause. It is Nature's Perfect Tonic, free from all harmful minerals, a safe and pleasant acting medicine for persons of every age. S. S. S. rids the body of that tired, worn-out feeling so common at this season, improves the appetite and digestion, tones up the stomach, acts with pleasing effects on the nervous system, and reinvigorates every portion of the body.

LAST RANCH SOLD

Great Tract of Grazing Land Brings Two Million.

Cudahy Land Near Los Angeles, Cal., 2,000 Acres in Size, Is Purchased by Syndicate—Bought in 1892 for $200,000.

Los Angeles, Cal.—The passing of the last of the great undivided ranch tracts in the immediate vicinity of Los Angeles was marked in the formal transfer by the heirs of the late Michael Cudahy to a local syndicate headed and represented by W. I. Hollingsworth, of the famous Cudahy ranch, just south of and adjacent to Huntington Park. Something over 2,000 acres changed hands in the deal, which involves a reported consideration of approximately $2,000,000. The purchasing syndicate, which has been incorporated as the Nadeau Ranch company, plans to subdivide the entire property and lay off a town site during the present year.

The transaction is of great significance not only on account of its magnitude, but because it signals the metropolitan advance of Los Angeles and its environs. The huge tract is actually almost a part of the city today, the development southwestward having crowded right up to the boundary of the ranch on the north. As a crow flies, the northwest corner of the property lies exactly five miles from the city center. The yellow cars, with a five-cent fare, touch this point of the holding.

The Cudahy ranch is the third great acreage holding to succumb to the advance of modern intensive development in the last two years, and its sale involves one of the largest lump considerations ever paid for real estate in this vicinity. The first of the deals mentioned was the transfer of the immense Van Nuys-Lanker ranch in San Fernando Valley, where today 47,000 acres are being cut up into small tracts by eager homebuyers. For this vast holding, which at its southern end reaches to within a little over four miles of the city limits, $2,500,000 was paid over by a syndicate of five buyers incorporated as the Los Angeles Suburban Homes company.

Of almost equal significance was the transfer about a year ago to another local syndicate of close to 3,000 acres of the old Dominguez Rancho, a sale which resulted in the establishment of the model industrial city of Dominguez and in the installation of one of the greatest irrigation systems in the world for the intensive cultivation on leased lands of close to 19,000 acres.

The Cudahy ranch was originally a part of the famous Nadeau vineyard, which at one time produced nearly a third of the wine made in California.

The Nadeau homestead is today one of the most picturesque of the homes of the old days. Of the substantial construction of a generation ago, it stands in a grove of magnificent old pines and pines, a landmark for miles around. It is the intention of the new owners of the property to allow the house to stand indefinitely.

ASK REVISION OF NOTED WORK

Parents of New York Pupils Object to Shakespeare's Use of Expletives.

New York.—The New York board of education has been asked by a committee of parents from one of the suburban schools to undertake a revision of Shakespeare's works to eliminate profanity and language shocking to the sensibilities of children. The committee suggests that the board might, in certain cases, "provide some harmless expletive to be used in cases of emergency."

Special complaint is lodged against the poet's "Merchant of Venice," which is used as practice material in the classes in reading for pupils of about 12 years. One parent explains:

"One of the passages containing an objectionable oath fell to my daughter, a girl of peculiarly sensitive and refined nature. Against the dictates of a tender conscience and under the stress of her supposed duty the girl went obediently through her lines. She and other pupils were much mortified."

PERPETUATES GAME PARK

Owners of Whitney Estate Near Pittsfield, Mass., Form Trust—Preserve Alive With Animals.

Pittsfield, Mass.—The Whitney estate on October mountain, perhaps the largest private game preserve in the east, is to be perpetuated by the action of the owners in transferring title to a trust association headed by Harry Payne Whitney. The preserve, which includes more than 16,000 acres of timbered land, was bought by the late William C. Whitney in the early '90s.

There are several large herds of moose, wapiti deer and elk and the forests are alive with smaller animals.

Doctor, Not Patient, Dies. Somerville, N. J.—After racing to the hospital to save the life of an injured railroad engineer, Dr. John P. Hecht dropped dead as he entered the operating room.

Sacriligious Cat. The Chinese world of Philadelphia is searching for a large Maltese cat, which had the temerity the other day to steal a nice chicken which had been placed before the sacred fowl. There was almost a riot when the guardian of the fowl discovered the loss, but this turned to dismay later, when the cat was seen crawling over the roof adjoining the fowl house with a good portion of the chicken in her mouth. There was a chase, but the cat was too nimble. Now the fowl must go hungry.

Family Close to Death. During a recent terrific storm, at Talleywang, N. S. W., a miner, his wife and child had a narrow escape from death in their cabin. The storm caused a gigantic tree to fall across the center of the house, but providentially the man was at one end of the building and his wife and child at the other, when it fell; and although the central portion of the cabin was literally smashed to the ground, either end of the structure remained intact.

Aristocratic Potatoes. Potatoes are pretty high, but nothing like in Auerthum, where some fine ones sold for $5 apiece. But the flesh of these fine ones when cooked is almost as white as Hungarian flour. And then these potatoes are not to be eaten, but are saved for seed, single ones being picked out from hundreds of thousands.—New York Press.

Ingenious Palindrome. The palindrome, or sentence which reads alike forward or backward, has exercised the ingenuity of many minds since Adam said to Eve: "Madam, I'm Adam." One, which an exchange attributes to Bolto, the composer, is a characterization of two of Shakespeare's heroes, in Italian: "Ebro e del, ma Amleto e orbo" (Drunk is Hamlet, but Hamlet is mad).

Success Means Constant Effort. Success is only for those who are willing to stand by their standards—who are ready to endure the siege of misjudgment—who are prepared to face the fire of criticism and to accept defeat until they become vaccinated against it. Most men who gave up would have arrived if they had kept up.—Herbert Kaufman.

Educational Pastime. Professor George Herbert Palmer suggests that "anyone who wants to see himself grow," try a plan of adding two new words each week to his vocabulary. "It will not be long," says Professor Palmer, "before the endless and enchanting variety of the world will begin to reflect itself in his speech, and in his mind as well."

Yet Man Boasts of His Brain. Just think, even according to the Bible chronology it took men 6,000 years to learn that the wheel of a car on a hard smooth rail would run easier than a wheel six inches in the mud. Instead of 6,000 years it probably took man 50,000,000 years to learn this.—Exchange.

Come Out Even. Two Atchison men bantered each other to trade a couple of four-dollar accounts sight unseen. When the accounts were handed over it was found that each one was an account against the same man. It was one trade where neither man got the worst of it.—Topeka Capital.

Try This. "It's so long since you called upon me," said the girl as she came down to the young man in the parlor, "that I was beginning to think you were forgetting me." "I am for getting you," replied the smart youth, "and that's why I've called tonight. Can I have you?"

Discovery of Little Use. An amateur chemist recently discovered an explosive believed to be 19 times as powerful as dynamite, but the secret of its composition was lost at the time of its discovery, together with the chemist and most of the glass in the town.

Must Be So. "Sadie," said a mother to her small daughter, "why is it that you and your little brother are always quarreling?" "I don't know," replied Sadie, "unless I take after you and he takes after papa."

High Explosives Used in Mining. In mining and similar operations in the Transvaal of South Africa great quantities of high explosives are used. It is estimated that $7,000,000 is invested in such explosives every year.

Man's Overlooked Opportunities. Oh, the littleness of the lives that we are living, denying to ourselves the bigness of that thing which it is to be a man, to be a child of God.—Phillips Brooks.

Comprehensive Summing Up. If a horse's legs are no good, the horse is no good. If a man's word is no good, the man is no good.—Jewell (Kan.) Republican.

Her Fall. "Eavesdropping!" exclaimed Adam, as his wife tumbled out of the fig tree.

Preached While He Slept.

Very curious was the case of Simon Watson, a hard-working, industrious Englishman, aged about 39, of athletic habits and active temperament, who, about 1826, began preaching in his sleep. His trance or sleeping fit invariably lasted as long as the ordinary nonconformist service, which he was in the habit of attending. The attacks became more frequent as time went on, and he would go through the whole of the ordinary chapel service, praying, reading the bible and preaching.

Damages for Spoiled Beauty.

A curious judgment was given in a German court the other day. A little girl of three who was placed in a nursing institution had been bitten by the yard dog, the bite leaving a scar on the cheek. The little one's guardian put in a claim, not in respect of the pain caused, but because the scar had lessened her chances of securing a husband when she became old enough to marry. The court upheld the guardian's claim, and placed the damages at $500.

New York's Greatest Borough.

Manhattan, one of the five boroughs comprising greater New York and its most important borough, is approximately fifteen miles in length, from the Battery to the city line, and about five miles at its greatest width. Its frontage on the water, together with the shipping facilities of the entire city, is 444 miles, or equal to the distance between the city and Buffalo on Lake Erie.

Conducts Sunday School in Jail.

Isaac Jones, retired whaler, steamboat man and soldier of Somerset, Pa., teaches what is probably the most unique Sunday school class in the country. For 20 years he has taught a class in the Somerset county jail. During that time six of his pupils, he is quoted as saying, have been hanged and one other has been convicted of murder.

Noah's Struggle.

It was only with the utmost difficulty that Noah was able to control himself, as the two mosquitoes of the ark waxed red and corpulent on the back of his hand, gorging themselves to repletion. "If it wasn't for the grudge I have against my posterity," he rasped through his clenched teeth, "I'd smash your infernal carcasses!"—Puck.

Emerson on Woman Suffrage.

If a woman demands votes, offices, and political equality with men, as among the shakers an elder and elderess are of equal power—and among the Quakers—it must not be refused. It is very cheap wit that finds it so droll that women should vote.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Off With the Old.

The latest fashion in New York, we are told, is for an engaged girl to wear the portrait of her sweetheart on her slipper. An ingenious bootmaker we understand, has invented a contrivance by which the portrait can be frequently changed without injuring the shoe.—Punch.

Existence an Aim.

Life is a mission. Every other definition of life is false, and leads all who accept it astray. Religion, science, philosophy, though still at variance on many points, all agree in this, that every existence is an aim.—Mazini.

Most Wonderful Temple.

Sometimes the temple of the god Ammon, at Karnak, is spoken of as the most wonderful architectural work ever designed by the hands of man. It at least indicates the old Egyptians were well advanced in civilization.

Ventilate the Chicken House.

Chickens breathe 8,278 cubic feet of air in 24 hours for every 1,000 pounds of live weight, while men require only 2,833 cubic feet and cattle but 2,804. Hence for poultry ventilation is a matter of first importance.

Easily Answered.

Wife—"The doctor has advised me to go south for a month's rest. The question now is, where to go." Husband—"Go to another doctor."—Flegende Blaetter.

The Average.

"Which of these clocks is right?" "I don't know. We've five clocks. When we want to know the time we add 'em together and divide by five, and even then we're not certain."—Punch.

Iron Industry in Sweden.

Iron has been smelted in Sweden for more than 2,000 years, and some of the ancient furnaces still are in existence.

Some Mosquitoes Don't Sting.

It is the female mosquito that does all the biting. Those that have the feathery, plume-like antennae are the males and they are harmless.

Not of Value.

When people ask for bread and are given a stone it is never a precious stone.—Desert News.

Difficulties.

Difficulties are things that show what men are.—Epictetus.

Meningitis Statistics of Oklahoma.

According to the monthly bulletin issued by the state department of health, on the 27th of March there had been 415 cases of meningitis in the state, 159 of which resulted fatally. The disease had appeared in 51 counties. Bryan reporting the largest, 54 cases and 21 deaths. Pontotoc came next on the list with 49 cases and 16 deaths. In Hughes county there had been 15 cases and 12 deaths. From this it appears that the physicians of Pontotoc county were very successful in combating the disease, and that although the average mortality of the state was 33 per cent, in this county it was only 32.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE DORR'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not irritate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a large sale than all others combined. SOLD IN TONS.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., April 20.—The coming week will afford something of a breathing spell in the hard-fought contests for the presidential nominations. The conventions and primaries to be held will be neither so numerous nor so important as those that have marked the week just closed.

The interest of the republican politicians will be confined largely to Missouri and Iowa, where State conventions are to be held for the selection of delegates to the national convention at Chicago. The Roosevelt claims appear to be the stronger so far as Missouri is concerned, though the Taft managers are not ready to concede that they have lost the state. In Iowa, the Taft people have strong hopes of winning as a result of the progressive vote being divided between Roosevelt and Cummins.

The republican state and district conventions in Rhode Island will be held Wednesday. The Taft people are in control of the regular party organization and expect to win out in the convention. A different situation exists in New Hampshire, where Tuesday's primaries are expected to determine the complexion of the republican state convention. Governor Bass and a strong progressive following in the Granite State are working hard in the Roosevelt interests.

Headquarters

for all kinds of coal. Our bins are full and we are equipped to execute your orders exactly as given and with little delay. The following prices will interest you:

Dewer Nut, $4.50; Lump, $5.50; Highest Grade McAlester Lump, $6.50; all in ton lots.

Remember if you get 1500 lbs. of lump coal and 500 lbs. of slack for a ton you have really only 1500 lbs. of coal as the slack is worthless to you. We would not let you have slack if you wanted it as we need it for our boilers, so be sure and get our prices before you buy.
